We Create Memories!™ www.HellericksFarm.com

Dear Educator,

Hellerick's Family Farm invites you to consider Hellerick's as a site for a fun and educational Fall Farm Field Trip. We will be hosting our 2016 fall tours from September 17th through October 28th.

Your farm experience includes:

- Educational Programs (see description below)
- Hayride
- Visit with Farm Animals
- Tractor Tire Playground
- Tractor Tire Mountain
- Corn Barn
- Echo Tubes
- Spider Web Crawl
- Giant Tube Slides (must be 42" or taller)
- Pedal Tricycles
- Farm Chores
- Corn Maze
- Other Fun Activities
- Baby Pam Pumpkin ($2.75 value)

Our educational programs are consistent with Pennsylvania Educational Standards and offer a learning experience that are age and grade appropriate. Our program introduces the importance of farming in the local community while also addressing literacy and listening skills through songs, stories, folktales and discussion.

The educational programs for fall is From Eggs to Wings: The Lifecycle of a Butterfly. Students will learn about the four stages of the life of a butterfly.

The cost of the trip is $8.00 per person (includes students, chaperones, parents or siblings) for a three-hour period of time. One teacher per class and children 2 years of age and under are free. We have a designated area with picnic tables for lunch and open areas for outdoor play.

We would be happy to customize our programs to meet your specific needs. If you have any questions or would like to book a trip, please contact us by phone at 215-766-8388 or email us at programs@hellericksfarm.com. We look forward to speaking further with you about our programs.

Best regards,

Bruce and Paul Hellerick
